
The birth dates are not known. The dates used were estimated on other known dates. Edward is said to have landed in Boston about 1639.

"In his last days, Edward Chapman had some trouble with his son, Nathaniel. Mark Symonds, his father-in-law, had left with him, in trust, certain lands, which were to be given to his children when they became of age. In Sept., 1677, after he had given John some real estate, Nathaniel sued his father for his share of the legacy left by his grandfather Symonds. By mutual consent,

"Dea. Moses Pingry and Symon Stacy of Ipswich, and Ezekiell Northend, of Rowley," were chosen to divide that land into five equal parts, and Nathaniel was to choose "his share, according to his birth."

Some of the other children left their shares in possession of their father till his death. When he made his will, April 9, 1678, he gave Nathaniel another equal share, and added, "My will is that all my children be satisfied with that I have done for them. And if any of them shall, through discontent, make trouble about this, my will is that they shall forfeit and lose what I have herein bequeathed to him or them." --1878 book.

In 1644 he was grantee of Ipswich, MA. "... which when granted these was common land lying between sd land and Rowley lines and in January, 1644, sayd comon land was granted to Edward Chapman--about 16 acres."

Mark Symonds, of Ipswich, was b. in England in 1584, and died April 23, 1659, age 75. His wife, Joanna died April 25 1660. After the death of Mary Chapman, his daughter, he left by will certain pieces of land for the benefit of his grandchildren, which caused their father, Edward Chapman, a great deal of trouble in his efforts to keep it and divide it equally among them in connection with his property. She was the widow of Thomas Abbot. Her surname has also been shown as "Swain."

SYMOND CHAPMAN, SON OF EDWARD CHAPMAN I OF IPSWICH, MASS.

THE TESTIMONY OF SYMON CHAPMAN AND HIS WIFE MARY ON BEHALF OF ELIZABETH HOW, ACCUSED WITCH AT SALEM, MASS.

Ipswich, Massachusetts -June the 25th, 1692

The testimony of Simon Chapman, aged about 48 years, testifieth and sayeth that he hath been acquainted with the wives of James Howe, Junior as a neighbor for this nine or ten years and [that] he never saw any harm by her [Elizabeth How] but that [which] hath been good, for I found her Just in her telling, faithful to her promises. I have had occasion to be in the company of good wife How by the fortnight [every two weeks], to gather at their house and at other times --I found at all times by her discourse [that] she was a woman of affliction and mourning for sin in herself and others. And when she met with any affliction she seemed to justify God and say that it was all better than she deserved, that it was by false accusations from men. And she used to bless God that she got good [better] by afflictions for it made her examine her own heart.

I never heard her revile any person that hath accused her with witchcraft, but pitied them and [she] said: "I pray God forgive them [her accusers] for they harm themselves more than me, though I am a great sinner yet I am clear of that," said she. " And such kind of afflictions doth but set me [to] examining my own heart and I find God wonderfully supporting me and comforting me by his word and promise."

She seemed to be a woman thorough in that great work of conviction and conversion which I pray God [to] make us all. My wife Mary Chapman can testify to the most of this above written, as witness my hand.

Historical Note: Elizabeth How was executed on July 19, 1692.

John Brewer was a town clerk of Ipswich October 2, 1683. The town voted that he should transcribe the records in the old book into another.

There is a conflict in data about Mercy and Mary Wentworth. See Phil Ellsworth's comments about Joseph Chapman's wife under Joseph in the 3rd generation.

The genealogy compiled by Cynthia Spaulding, citing the Wentworth Genealogy, has data as reflected about Mercy Wentworth in this record. "Mercy and Mary's brother Paul Wentworth was an 'Innholder' and 'ferryman' at Kittery, ME and had a wife Jane and children. Intention Feb. 5, 1707 in Ipswicyh of Mercy Winworth of Rowley to Joseph Chapman??

10.  iv  Dorothy Chapman baptized: Oct 10 1675, Rowley, Essex Co., MA. The baptism date is from the genealogy sent by the late Norma Perry which showed no source.

3.  Nathaniel Chapman (1.Edward1) b. about 1645, Rowley, Essex Co., MA, Pub: 9, occupation: housewright, m. Dec 30 1674, in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA, Mary Wilborn, b. Oct 30 1657, Boston, Suffolk Co., MA, (daughter of Michael Wilborne and Mercie Beamsley) d. Oct 29 1749. Nathaniel died Jul 2 1691. "This marriage was a source of great anxiety to his aged father, who d. 4 years afterward. In 1681 he bought a house in Hog lane, Ipswich, but probably worked at his trade in different places. We find no family record of his children, but the researches of L. B. Chapman seem to confirm the opinion that he was the same man who is called, in the records, Nathaniel Chapman of Kittery, housewright, with a w., Mary, and children, but we know not how many. (2a)" - 1893 book ["2a" lists the supposed children we show for this family. See below.]

The children listed came from the 1893 book which qualifies them as "supposed" and mentions another Nathaniel Chapman who had a wife Mary and children: i. Hannah born Jan 1691-2, ii. Margaret born Feb 8,1692, iii. Michael born May 13, died July 9 1694, iv. Mary died July 16, 1696 and v. David (or Daniel) born August 14, 1695 and died July 16, 1696

Another genealogy uses another set (a mix of two) of children as those of Nathaniel and Mary. It has dates and spouses on several: i. Nathaniel born 1676 married Ruth Davis ii. Mercy married Adrian Frye, Jr iii. Elizabeth born Feb 13 1685, married Joseph Wilson iv. Abigail married (1) John Birdges and (2) Joseph Muzett v. Mary married John Lord. vi John born before 1691 vii. Hannah born Feb 8 1691/2 viii. Edward born Apr 14 1701 (She shows his father died 1691.)
The source of their information is not shown but: Nathaniel 2, son of Edward 1, had a wife named Mary Wilborn, m. Dec. 1674, by whom he had a daughter Hannah, born February 8, 1691-2, and other children who died young. In June, 1696, he married Ruth Davis.

[Two "sources" have shown Nathaniel born Oct 30, 1657 but that was the date of the birth of his wife and it is thought the sources misread the 1893 book.]

CFA 433, Cliff & Gerry Chapman Ahnentafel Mary was living in 1702 and probably 25 years later. Mary's father, who was known as Andrew Peters, was an innkeeper, but on January 24, 1671 his license was withdrawn for misconduct. 1893 book

21. vii Mary Chapman b. estimate 1686, m. John Lord, b. Jan 18 1693, (son of Nathan Lord and Martha Tozier) d. about 1761. W. S. Grimes of Alpena, MI showed Mary as a child in this family though she was not in the published account. She was his 4th great grandmother. Her descendants are not being listed until there is some verification that she belongs here in the family. Another contact, Paul ??? said Nathaniel, son of Edward & Joanna Symonds Chapman had a daughter who married John Lord.

On 24 June 1676 he was a soldier in the war against King Philip, and his death may have resulted from disease contracted in the army. -1893 book

September 1, 1677, his father, "in consideration of his dutifulness, and living with me to the day of date," gave him a house and lands, during the term of his natural life, and to his son, John Chapman, after him, if he lived to the age of 21 years. At his death this property fell into the hands of his widow Rebecca, till his son, John Chapman, born July 7, 1676, became of age. -1893 book

Cynthia Spaulding's genealogy shows he may have died in Tewksbury. The names of Rebecca's parents came from Cynthia Spaulding genealogy which had no source listed. She married Francis Young of Ipswich December 4, 1678.

Samuel, a wheelwright was one who makes and repairs, wheels, wheeled carriages, etc.

Tradition says that Samuel was induced to leave his native place in Massachusetts, on account of the excitement caused by the prosecution of many persons who were accused of witchcraft. -1893 book

Note II in the Appendix of the 1893 book- pgs 114-115: "Samuel Chapman was a man of piety and influence in the community. In May, 1710 he presented to the council of New Hampshire a petition for a meeting-house, etc., to be erected in the part of the town called North Hill. It was granted, notwithstanding the opposition of the selectment of Hampton. But owing to unforeseen difficulties, the separate organization was not completed, nor the new meeting-house finished, till 17 Nov. 1738, sixteen years after his death. Four years after forming the Second church in Hampton, the town of North Hampton was incorporated, 26 Nov. 1742. Rev. Nathaniel Gookin, son of a former pastor in Hampton, was ordained and settled over this new parish, 31 Nov. 1739, where he remained twenty-seven years, till he was removed by death, 22 Oct. 1766. It was said by old people living within the period of my recollection, that his sermons, previous to the great earthquake of 1755, were very impressive, that they contained not only faithful warnings, but some remarkable predictions."

She declined to administer on his estate, and on March 4, 1724, his sons Joseph and Samuel, were administrators, and made a return of the inventory June 1, 1724. 1893 book

Joseph and Mercy/Mary published their marriage intentions February 5, 1707 and were actually married April 23. Her/their parents were from Rowley, Essex County. The 1893 Edward Chapman book says Mercy was Mary and that Joseph's brother, John Chapman, married Mercy Wentworth- a sister.

According to Phil Ellsworth's research, Mercy married William Chapman in 1728. William was the grandson of another Chapman immigrant - William Chapman born about 1633 in England- another branch of the overall Chapman family. There was a Joseph Chapman in this William branch that is commonly mistaken for the subject. He was born 1667 and died 1765. See John Chapman and Mercy Wentworth above.

The 1893 book, page 12, shows all the children born in Rowley, however, Phil says the first four were born at New London and the last four at Norwich.

The marriage date shown in one genealogy and cited NHGHS 4/1851. The 1878 book has Feb 5, 1707 and the 1893 book Feb 23 1707. It is possible that the certificate was issued on Feb 5, the ceremony performed on Feb 23 and the event recorded on April 23 so that all could be correct. That genealogy gives a birth date of Dec 25 1692. The 1893 book had for her birth [1692?] Some also claim that she died in Norwich, Connecticut, June 3 1725, which would be just before her husband Joseph died. This must be another Mary/Mercy Wentworth. All list her parents as Paul Wentworth and Catherine Stewart/Steward.

about 1722, d. Apr 27 1786. John died Dec 7 1760, Tewksbury, Middlesex County, MA. He was a maker of leather breeches. Bob Faurie says Joanna Perkins fits here as a wife but some children born after John's supposed death in 1760. That has to be a different John Chapman and the 19th century Edward books are in error. Florence Wheeler's work clarifies. ONE OF THESE JOHN CHAPMAN FAMILIES HAS TO BE OUT OF PLACE.

She was previously married to Nathaniel Boardman. Children Elizabeth and Nathaniel applied to the court for their "Uncle Davis Chapman" to be appointed as their guardian- 1761. This proves several connections.

81. Joseph Chapman (23.Samuel, 6.Samuel, 1.Edward) b. Jun 10 1713, Hampton, Rockingham County, NH, Pub: 59 - 17, occupation: Cordwainer, m. Mary Winn. He wqs taxed in Exeter (New Market Section) in 1723 with Samuel, and is supposed to have spent his life in New Market. He was living there in 1776. (The above and names of the first two children from 1878 book, page 9)

From 1893 book, page 15: For some twelve years, from 1750 to 1761, he resided in Exeter, where several of his children were born: then he removed to Epsom, where he had purchased land, which in 1768 he sold to Simeon Chapman, probably his son. In 1780 one Joseph Chapman was a citizen of Wakefield, and owned land there and in Rochester, to which he had removed in 1782. In 1789 he was again in Exeter (or a man of the same name), whence he removed in or near 1791 to Mt. Vernon, or Vienne, Me., near the line between the towns. This Joseph Chapman by his w. Mary Moore of Dover had 9 children, five of them born in Ne Hampshire and 4 in Maine. It is possible that Joseph Chapman who married Mary Moore of Dover was a son of Joseph Chapman. The names from this source follow the first two.

It appears that the two books have a different set of children for this family.

PA. Uriah died Apr 23 1816, Palmyra Twp., Wayne/Pike Co., PA, buried: Pine Grove Cemetery, Paupack, PA. Frances J. Converse (FJC) sent the following along with a "stick-em note" which said: "These are copies of letters that had belonged to my grandfather Thos W. Chapman. He had been president of a Chapman Reunion group..."

----------

Uriah Chapman Sr. born June 1, 1731, and Sibel Olmsted, his wife, born April 12, 1736, at Norwich, Connecticut, where they were married and lived until the most of their children were born. They settled on the Delaware River in what is now Pike County, Pennsylvania. They both died and were buried in the Paupack Settlement in Palmira Township.

I am 65 years of age, a son of Daniel St. John Chapman, who was a son of Uriah Chapman Jr. who was a son of Uriah and Sible Chapman. Am residing at Bradford, Penn."

George E. Chapman (GEC) sent "BIOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM BROOKS CHAPMAN, COMPILED BY JOHN B. CHAPMAN, CINCINNATI, OHIO, FEBRUARY 22, 1927"

"Uriah Chapman, Sr., whose ancestors came from England in 1643, and settled at Ipswich, Massachusetts, was born at Montville [New London County], Connecticut, June 1st, 1731, where he married Sybil Olmstead. Unto them were born thirteen children. He was an upstanding, refined Christian patriot.

"In 1774, Uriah Chapman, Sr., and his family, in company with about thirty other families of the early settlers of Connecticut, emigrated to the wilds of Pennsylvania, and settled upon a grant of land acquired from the Delaware Land Company situated upon the East bank of Walling Paupack Creek, now Pike County, Pennsylvania. The entire tract of land was divided into lots containing Two hundred (200) acres each; selection of lots was made by lottery. Uriah Chapman drew Lot No. 18. No deeds were ever made to the settlers for the lots thus acquired - title thereto being possession with the consent of neighbors. and these original lot numbers are now existant and recognized as valid titles.

"These early settlers established a Code of rules and regulations according to their ideas of civil, military and ecclesiastical Law, and elected officers for enforcement, and among other officers so elected, Uriah Chapman, Sr. in May, 1776, was made Justice of the Peace. He died at the home of his early adoption, on April 22, 1816.

Continues on the records of Uriah Chapman, Jr., Daniel St. John Chapman, and William Brooks Chapman. Pike county was split off Wayne Co in 1814 between the times of their deaths.

Based on Phil Ellsworth's research we believe she was a probably named "Cook" and not Olmstead. She may have been the daughter of Nathaniel Cook.

The two Edward books of the 19th century disagree on the date of birth.

The 1878 book has him as son of Samuel Chapman and _____ York, born Mar. 7, 1750 in Newmarrket, NH, married, as a second wife, Hannah Jackman Aug. 12, 1772 who was born July 24, 1753 in
The name of his first wife, who was childless, is not known. Eliphaz was a Congregationalist minister, and preached at Madbury from 1770 to 1773, and afterward at Methuen, MA. He moved to Bethel ME then Sadbury, Canada in Feb. 1791. He journeyed with two two-horse teams through the towns of York, Gorham, Bridgton, Waterford and Albany. From the latter place there was no road to Bethel, and only one horse team had passed over the route before. There were but few families in Bethel at this time. Mr. Chapman selected a lot on the north side of the Androscoggin river, which his son Timothy afterward occupied, and which still remains in the family (1878). He was a very useful man in the new town. He solemnized many of the early marriages, and judging from the number of children named after him, he must have been very popular. He died Jan. 20, 1814, and his wife Hannah died Dec. 15, 1839, aged 92 years. Births of their eight children were recorded in Methuen, Essex Co., MA. __ 1878 Edward book pages 20-21.

The 1893 book shows him as son of Samuel Chapman and _____ York, born Mar. 7, 1747 and married (1) Sarah Hutchins and (2) Hannah Jackman Aug. 12, 1772 at Rowley, MA. Hannah was born July 24 1753 and died in Bethel, ME, Dec. 15, 1839 at age 86. He preached as lay preacher at Madbury, from 1770 to 1772, was ordained there a Congregational minister, Nov. 1772, and became pastor of the Second church of Methuen, till 1777, when he purchased a farm and settled on it. In Feb. 1791, with a large family, he moved to Sadbury, Canada (now Bethel, ME), where he settled on the north of the Androscoggin river, a farmer, and d. Jan. 20, 1814 at age 66 years and 10 months. He made the journey from Methuen with two teams, each with two horses. When he reached Albany, ME, there was no road to Bethel; only one horse team had passed over the route before him. During the first few years the family endured many privations in this new settlement, but by industry and economy he trained up 8 children to become useful members of the church and of society, who died respected, leaving many children and grandchildren. __ 1893 book pages 27-28.

He fought at Bunker Hill - Marion C. Hays

During the War of 1812, Uriah Jr. left his home and went to defend Buffalo at the time it was burned by the British. In 1817 he moved to Old Portage, Summit Co. Ohio (near Akron). In 1822 he moved back to his old home in Chili, Monroe County, New York. - Marion C. Hays

Uriah, Jr. was a cooper by trade and while living in Ohio, at Old Portage, he manufactured pails, tubs, and churns, for the early settlers as they came into the wilds of Ohio, and was also noted as a trapper of wolves that were very destructive among the sheep in an early day. Sand Run and the small streams in Portage Twp., Summit County, Ohio are the places where the wolves often fell as victims of his steel traps. - Marion C. Hays

[Marion Hays did not cite his sources.]

There were born unto Uriah and Rebecca St. John Chapman, thirteen children, including Daniel St. John.

"He was a revolutionary soldier, enlisted three times and served two and one-half years. Was wounded, and subsequently, his widow was granted a pension for injuries received by the soldier while in action."

McKean County, Pennsylvania. George E. Chapman (GEC) sent "BIOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM BROOKS CHAPMAN, COMPILED BY JOHN B. CHAPMAN, CINCINNATI, OHIO, FEBRUARY 22, 1927."

[This account begins on the record of Uriah Chapman, Sr. and then continues on to the record of Uriah Chapman, Jr.]

"Daniel St. John Chapman was born at Paupack, Pike County, Pennsylvania, February 14th, 1796, and was married at Eaglesville, Ashtabula County, Ohio, on July 4th, 1823, to Margaret Burtt, daughter of Zebalin and Anna Burtt, the Burtt family having come from Connecticut and settled at New Lime, Ohio in 1816.

"Daniel St. John was a soldier in the war of 1812, having enlisted at Rochester, New York in Captain Isaac Stone's Company of Dragoons. He served under Generals Scott and Porter in their campaign in Canada, and was in the battles of Lundies Lane, Chippewa and the destruction of Fort Erie, and in all engagements of that campaign.

"At the battle of Lundies Lane, he was wounded and permanently disabled, but remained in the service until the Company was mustered out on November 8th 1814. He died at Bradford, Pennsylvania, on May 22nd, 1882, and was buried at Conneaut, Ohio.

"There were born unto Daniel St. John and Margaret Burtt, Chapman, eight children, of whom William Brooks Chapman, the subject of this sketch is included."

[Continues on the record of William Brooks Chapman.]
Margaret's Burtt family moved from Connecticut to New Lime, Ohio in 1816.

CHAPMAN, SIMEON B., dealer in general merchandise, Derby, Lucas county, Iowa. A native of Pike county, Pennsylvania, born May 12, 1812. When a boy, fourteen years of age, his parents emigrated to Darke county, Ohio, where he lived four years, thence to Fountain county, Indiana, and from there to Illinois, where he remained one year. He then moved to Franklin county, Missouri, and from there to Iowa, in 1847, settling in Monroe county. In the spring of 1851, he came to this county, and has resided here ever since. He has been a farmer all his life, until a short time ago, when he embarked in the mercantile business with his son Boynton T. Chapman. He was married November, 1834 to Miss Jane Mitchell, a native of Kentucky. Their union has been blest with ten children, nine boys and one girl, seven of whom are living: Boynton T., Lyman M., Solomon B., Milcenia L., widow of John Keplinger, Robert R., Isaac C., and Joseph P.; Samuel G., John C., and Henry A. are deceased. The last named son came to an untimely death by being buried in a sandbank, near Derby. His exhumation devolved upon the lone efforts of a disconsolate father, who found life wholly extinct. Mr. Chapman is a Universalist, and an ardent greenbacker.

Moved from Damariscotta to Bowdoinham, Maine

The 1849 goldrush tempted many of the Chapman boys. Twenty two Chapmans set sail from Damariscotta, Me. on December 20th 1849 with William Hatch as pilot.

The boat, a two masted schooner was built by Hatch and was named THE DAMARISCOVE by the widow of Captain Rick Pattershall. The widow Pattershall financed the trip.

Their destination was San Franscisco, Ca. by way of Cape Horn. They had some sort of trouble and were forced to stop along the way to earn more money. They finally arrived around the 4th of July 1850. William Hatch apparently ran into foul play, disappeared and was never heard from again.

Martin Van Buren Chapman (my Great Great Grandfather) was among the 22 to go, but when they had to stop, he continued alone by land, working his way South, across Panama and up the West coast to San Francisco. He worked along the way as a Blacksmith and once in California established a Blacksmith shop in Marysville (about 1849).

When he returned (apparently not rich), he brought back a gold nugget which has was passed down to William's wife Ada who in turn gave it to her Grandson (my Father, Clifford Chapman). It had been made into a pin, and my Dad often told of seeing his Grandmother wear it.

Just before he died in 1992, Dad gave it to me with the understanding that I would record this history and pass the pin along to the next generations.

I also have in my possession, part of the sextant which I have been told was used on the DAMARISCOVE. (I also have a note written by my Mother from information given her by Harold Castner that indicate it may have instead been used on a ship going to the West Indies)... In either case, it has been passed down through several generations and was for sure in the possession of my Great Grandfather William Higgins Chapman.

Additional notes from Susie: “used on Brig Llewelyn to West Indies trader: lumber, rum for molasses”. I believe this note is referring to the part of a sextant that I have in my possession. I was also told it was used on the ship that sailed to California during the gold rush...The only thing for certain is that it has been in the Chapman family for several generations...

[This account begins on the record Uriah Chapman, Sr. and continues on the records of Uriah Chapman, Jr., and Daniel St. John Chapman. It concludes with this segment.]

"CAPTAIN WILLIAM BROOKS CHAPMAN, son of Daniel St. John and Margaret Burtt Chapman, was born at Cleveland, Ohio, October 8th, 1826. About 1835, the Chapmans settled at Conneaut, Ohio, where the family, father, mother and eight children, experienced the struggles and hardships of the average early settlers on the Western Reserve, for good, clothes and education.

"William was the oldest of the children and did a man's work from early boyhood and worked as day laborer on the "Academy" erected at Conneaut, and finally, was enrolled as a student at 16 years of age, in the Little College he had helped to build.

"But the demand of the family for the earnings of the sturdy boy were so pressing, that educational pursuits were temporarily suspended and hard work resumed, until the family, with the assistance of the other children, got on fairly well, and William, by rigid economy, had earned and saved sufficient money to purchase eleven (11) acres of land about one and one-half miles East of Conneaut on the main highway between Cleveland and Erie, and built a log house thereon.

"On October 14th, 1847, he was married to Cynthia, daughter of Ezekel and Betsey Pitney Olds. By hard work during daylight and studying nights, enabled him to be enrolled as a candidate for admission to the Bar, and in 1853, at the February term of Court, was admitted to the Practice of the law at Columbus, Ohio. Subsequently, he was admitted to practice in the Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court at Washington, D.C., and from the date of his first admission to the bar, he devoted his time and best efforts to the law with serious dignity and marked success.

"The following name children were born unto William Brooks and Cynthia Pitney Chapman:
  Sarah Margaret -- Born June 8, 1849
  Phebe Ellen -- " August 13, 1851
  Henry William -- " April 6, 1854
  John Burtt -- " June 29, 1856

2444 Eva Collins says she was born in Pennsylvania.
"At the first call of Abraham Lincoln for volunteers to suppress the Rebullion of 1861, Wm. Brooks Chapman responded and on July 20th, 1861, enlisted in the 2nd Ohio Battery Light Artillery, was commissioned First Lieutenant and while serving as Captain in Command of the Battery at the Battled of Pea Ridge, Arkansas, was on March 7th, 1862 seriously wounded- a one-ounce bullet having penetrated his left hip, passing entirely through his body, necessitating his home-coming for treatment. Application for leave of absence was granted by Major General Ashboth, the Officer in charge of the Division, who took occasion to write upon the application the following words: 'Application for leave of absence is hereby granted to Lieutenant Chapman, who contributed no small part in checking the advance of the elated enemy on the evening of March 7th, 1862.' In June, 1862, he was commissioned as Captain of the Battery and in October following, was compelled to resign the commission by reason his serious condition on account of the wound so received and after his recovery therefrom, he devoted his attentions to the practice of his profession. In 1872, Captain Chapman moved from Conneut, Ohio to Erie, Pennsylvania, where he engaged in the practice of law until 1879, when he moved to Bradford, Pennsylvania, and resided there until his death, October 27th 1895. He was buried at Conneaut, Ohio, October 30th, 1895."

Signed John B. Chapman, 1404 E. McMillan St., Coneum, Ohio.

[Note that in his biography John B. Chapman refers to Cynthia's parents as "Ezekel and Betsey Pitney Olds" and then later refers to Cynthia as Cynthia Pitney Chapman. Something seems inconsistent.]

Bridgton Cemetery off Sweden Road.

In notes taken by my Mother (Susie Grover Chapman) which were taken during discussions with Harold Castner of Damarascotta, indicates the following: "William Chapman (Grandpa Chapman) Bonaventure Cemetery, Savannah Ga., 18 miles from ocean, South Bank of Savannah River (Lived on Henry St. & Duffy St. from 1898 to 1902."

This makes no sense because William and his wife are clearly buried at the cemetery on the Sweden Road in North Bridgeton. In my recent conversation with Eleanor Bennett, she said it was possible that the note was referring to the first child of William and Ada who was born while they were away from Maine. It was possibly in Georgia because "Grandfather" Chapman was a civil Engineer who built water and sewer systems all over the country including the original bath system installed at the White House.

William Graduated from Bowdoin College but not until after he was married when he was encouraged by whomever he worked for to return for his Engineering Degree. Eleanor believes his degree was finally earned around 1883.

I received the following information from "Rick" Chapman's wife who is the Grandson of Everett Chapman. She got it from Eleanor Chapman. It is taken from a page entitled:

Bowdoin College, Class of 1880

WILLIAM HIGGINS CHAPMAN CHAPMAN, WILLIAM HIGGINS, son of Martin Van Buren and Georgia M. (Higgins) Chapman was born October 1, 1856, in Bowdoinham, Me. In October of 1880 he entered the employ of the late Col. George E. Waring, Jr., of Newport, R.I., as a civil engineer, having previously taken, at Col. Waring's request, a short course in house sanitation in Boston. For the following three years he had charge of the house branch of Col. Waring's sanitary work, inspecting the condition and arrangement of existing plumbing appliances, and supervising the installation of alterations to old buildings, all in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Col. Waring.

The most notable work of this class of which Chapman had direct charge was the installation of new plumbing appliances at the White House in Washington, just after the assassination of President Garfield, and at a later date he prepared the plans and specifications for the entire remodeling of the plumbing at the Capitol at Washington, which work was constructed under the supervision of Mr. Farquhar, a member of the firm. During this period he constructed several of the "Waring Systems" for the sanitary disposal of all of the plumbing wastes from country houses, which were out of reach of a public sewer. These were among the first attempts at sewage purification in this country.

During the next four years the most of Chapman's time was spent in office work, preparing maps to illustrate the social statistics of the tenth census of which Col. Waring was special agent, and the preparations of plans for the sewerage of cities and towns in all sections of the United States. In January, 1887, Col. Waring took himself and Mr. Farquhar into business under the name of Waring, Chapman & Farquhar, with an office in Newport, R.I. Later a branch office was opened in New York, to which the entire business was transferred in 1898.

The firm made a specialty of sanitary engineering, and Chapman designed the sewerage plans and was engineer in charge of the work for Laconia, N.H., Athol, Mass., Lexington, Ky., Freehold and Flemington, N.J., and Waycross and Savannah, Ga. The latter work covered a period of four years, from 1898 to 1902. Upon completion of the Savannah work Chapman moved to New York, devoted his entire time to the management of the firm business. In January of 1905 he retired from business, moving to Harrison, Maine, in March. He is now fitting his two sons for Bowdoin.

Chapman married at South Bridgton, Me., January 1, 1885 Ada G., daughter of Thomas P. Kimball. Their children have been Arthur K. born September 5, 1888, and who died December 26th of that year, Harry W., born October 21, 1889, and Everett T., born October 30, 1891. Chapman received the degree of civil engineer from Bowdoin in 1883. He is a member of the Odd Fellows, having joined Richmond Lodge, of Richmond, Me.

This article was probably written as part of a Bowdoin College alumni yearbook.

Children:

2657. i Arthur K. Chapman d. died at a young age. may be buried in Savannah, Ga. died in infancy.
+ 2659. iii Everett Thomas Chapman b. Oct 3 1891.

Children:

The following is taken directly from a book written by Ernest E. Ward in 1966 MY FIRST SIXTY YEARS IN HARRISON, MAINE.

I have the copy that he gave my parents. It includes much history of Harrison including the Riverboats that came up from Naples, the Narrow Gauge railroad and the old Canal.

"In 1891, Hollis H. Caswell bought from Howard L. Sampson the lot on which the Anchorage now stands and erected a woodworking shop run by water power near the site of the Harry Maxfield home. The following year he built a large store and grain mill, and also two large storehouses. It is interesting to note Mr. Caswell- who was an experienced carpenter- (with the exception of one man for three days to help frame the store) completed the entire building alone making the windows, doors and frames in his shop.

Upon completion he opened a general store in the main building and a grist mill in the building now occupied by Harry Maxfield's filling station. This business he carried on for a number of years under the name of Hollis H, Caswell, later taking in his Son-In-Law Harry Chapman, as a partner under the firm name of Caswell & Chapman. Mr. Caswell sold his interest in the business in 1919 to Everett T. Chapman.

The business continued under the name of Chapman Brothers when Everett Chapman sold his interest to his Brother Harry, who continued the business for a short time, selling out to Portland parties. It was closed out as a store.

In 1939, the land and buildings were bought by the writer and the main store converted into an up-to-date restaurant seating fifty. The grain mill was converted into a filling station which was purchased by Harry Maxfield, together with the adjoining building which was remodeled by him into an attractive home.

The dine and dance hall did not prove to be a financial success and in 1942 the building was again remodeled into a sixteen room house where I now reside. In 1946 a six room cottage, boathouse and garage was built on the premises."

   MY NOTES 1997: Janice (Chapman) Charest My Father Clifford remembered the history a little differently. He remembered living in an apartment over the store and worked there when he was very young. He drove a horse drawn delivery wagon from Harrison to Naples twice a day taking orders for the next trip as he delivered items ordered from the last. To the best of his recollection, his Father lost the store through Bankruptcy during the depression. He thought it was because he had extended too much credit.

My Uncle Wey (Harry W. II) does not remember much about the store and believes the family had moved from the apartment over the store to the house on Bear River Road (Waterford Road) before he was born. He does remember as a very young child (maybe before he could walk) of being strapped in a basket and taken on the delivery route for the store by my Father.

I have never known what Harry did after the store, but my Dad talked about a dump truck and leaving school after his first year in the Academy to help with expenses at home by working with his Father.

Payments to various people for work performed for the Town were itemized in Town reports. Payments were made to Harry Chapman for various things such as hauling wood, moving goods of people being assisted on the Town Farm, road work and "snow bills" for many years after the last mention of the store in 1931. so it would appear my Father's recollections were accurate.

A recent conversation with Eleanor Bennett (Everett's daughter) she said her Father and his Brother Harry (my Grandfather) could not get along in business. That was the reason that Everett sold out to Harry and started his own Express business. Eleanor also confirmed that the store was lost through bankruptcy.

From Town reports, it is obvious that no matter how hard the times, Harry never took charity. Town reports from those days listed every person assisted on the Town Farm which was the version of welfare in those days. No Chapman name ever appeared there.

Bessie's mother died shortly after childbirth. Her Father married her Mother's sister Edith when she was age ?.

After her marriage to Harry Chapman on January 1, 1912, her Father gave interest in the General Store to Harry and later sold his remaining interest to Harry's brother Everett. The store was prosperous being the only distributor to Central and Northern Maine. Harry later bought his Brother's interest only to lose the store to Bankruptcy. (see notes under Harry taken from a book written by Ernest Ward). According to this book, the store was sold to a Portland Company (no date given) and then to Ernest Ward in 1939.

Bessie did not inherit anything from her Father when he passed away. My Father guessed that the reason was because he had originally set Harry up in business and he felt Bessie had already received her share. I was very close to my Grandmother and she never spoke of it to my knowledge. Her half sister, Martha inherited all.

My Grandmother was a wonderful woman. I remember visiting her at the farm on the Waterford Road. My brother and I roamed freely throughout the house and we were allowed to "play" her piano as long as my Grandfather was not home. When he was home, we sat in a walk in closet and played with blocks that my Grandmother kept for us there.

I was very close to Gram. She visited often and attended nearly all of my kid's birthday parties. We often went with my Mother to visit her in Norway and had picnics and went for rides. She was always very independent and would nearly break into a run if she thought someone was going to "help" her walk as she got older. She lived in her own apartment until she died. She had a severe stroke a week before she died on December 16th, 1977 at the age of 87. She had been out playing beano the night before the stroke.

Clifford was the oldest of six children born to Harry W. Chapman I and Bessie Gathercole Caswell. He was raised in Harrison, Maine. He spent a lot of his time with his Grandmother Ada (Kimball) Chapman who gave him his nickname "KICK". He was a very active child and his Grandmother called him "her little Kicker boy". The name stayed with him throughout his life. To those who knew him well, his name was "Kick Chapman".

I have a pewter candlestick holder from my Father that holds a birthday cake size candle. My Father remembered this as his "night light". His Grandmother used to set it on the mantle in his room whenever he stayed there which was often.

As a young boy, he preferred going fishing and trapping to going to school, but managed to finish the first year at Bridgton Academy before quitting school to help out with expenses at home. This was at the beginning of the great depression of 1929. He worked at various jobs including working for his Father, cutting lumber in the woods, fishing and trapping.

Without benefit of an education, I remember him as one of the smartest men alive. He was very creative and talented. He could fix anything mechanical, knew how to travel in the woods and was also one of the most gentle people I have ever known. He was never angry, made many friends and was a very caring and loving parent.
He retired at age 65 from the Maine Forest Service. Shortly after his retirement, he started having breathing problems. He was diagnosed with Emphysema in 1986, more than 10 years after he had quit smoking. He was attached to an oxygen tank for at least the last six years of his life.

After the death of his wife in 1990, he began to lose weight and was diagnosed with cancer of the esophagus in 1992. He died on June 16, 1992. His wake was held on Fathers's day. His funeral was attended by over 200 people with a contingent Maine Forest Service Representatives. He was buried in a Maine Forest Service Uniform from the time that he was a Ranger.

Susie was the fifth of eight children born to John and Villa (Kenniston) Grover.

She remembered her Mother as a gentle person and her Father as a hard taskmaster. She was allowed to go to school only as long as the law demanded, through the eighth grade, which she attended at Bolster's Mills.

She met Clifford Chapman while they were both working for Camp Ha-Wa-Ya in Harrison. She was hired to do the laundry for the campers, and Clifford was an all around handyman.

My Father always claimed that she deliberately broke the pump on the washing machine so that he would have to come fix it. They were married in Bridgton on 1/25/1939 when they were both age 25.

They were provided lodging at a farm owned by the camp on the the extension to what is now the Deer Trees Theater Road. It was called simply "The Old Farm".

Shortly after their marriage, they adopted Elwood, the son of her sister, Myrtle. In 1941, their first child, Janice was born in Portland by Caesarian Section. They continued to live on the "Old Farm " for about another year and a half, then moved to Harrison Village. Their 2nd child, Clyde was born in 1943 also in Portland by caesarian section.

At one point, Susie had a business of her own, taking in laundry from area summer camps. She worked very hard to supplement the family income. The children never realized the sacrifices made by their parents to support them.

After moving to Harrison Village, Clifford was employed by George Maxfield as a mechanic. He also drove snow plowing equipment for the Town of Harrison and was the Fire Chief there until they moved to Gorham in 1952 for his job as a Maine State Forest Ranger.

In the Village, they lived first at the "Old Tavern" which literally was an old tavern which had been converted to apartments by Percy Stearns and his wife Blanche. They later moved to a Front Street Apartment owned by Alice Edgecomb.

Susie was an excellent writer and composed many poems. She worked for a brief time at the Pineland Center for the mentally retarded. She was injured when she was kicked in the knee by one of the patients.

In 1952, they moved to Gorham, Maine to a house which was included as part of the job as a Forest Ranger.
While not technically a State Employee, Susie helped with the paperwork, tended the radio and issued burning permits for the Maine Forest Service while living in the Forestry home in Gorham, Maine while her husband was the Maine Forest Ranger there. They paid $125 a month for the rent on the house at Brandy Brook Hill until his retirement at the age of 65. They were both honored at his retirement in 1979.

They then moved to a small house in North Windham on Route 35 owned by Arkie Rodgers where they resided until their respective deaths, Susie in 1990 and Clifford in 1992.

Their home always had an open door. Whenever unexpected guests would arrive, they simply made room and added "water to the soup" to accommodate. They loved camping and they both made many friends over the years. During the three weeks in the hospital during her final illness, she had over 200 visits from over 125 different visitors (not counting her immediate family).

Each of their funerals were attended by over 200 people.

From the Portland Press Hearld, Saturday July 5, 1997.

Bridgton- Clyde L. Whitney, 83, died Friday at a Bridgton Hospital after a long illness.

He was born in South Casco, a son of George and Emma Wahlman Whitney, and attended schools in Casco, graduating from Bridgton Academy in 1932. While at the Academy, he met Ruby Chapman of Harrison. They were married November 1, 1934. Mr. Whitney lived in Raymond Cape for 42 years, Naples for 7 years and then moved to Bridgton in 1996.

During World War II he worked as a shipfitter at the east yard of the South Portland Shipyard. After the war, he operated a poultry farm in Raymond Cape and drove a school bus. When the bus contract was given to L. F. Martin, Mr. Whitney worked full time for him, operating a wholesale grocery delivery route to camps, schools, hotels and restaurants.

At Bridgton Academy, Mr. Whitney played all sports but excelled at baseball. After graduation he pitched for the Saco Valley League and the Boston Twilight League. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and had dogs trained to trail foxes, raccoons and wildcats.

Mr. Whitney was a member of the Sebago 31 Rod and Gun Club. He was also a member of the Naples Grange and attended meetings all over the State.

Surviving besides his wife of Bridgton are a son, Wayne G. of Raymond Cape and a daughter, Sandra Swett of Bridgton; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

A grave side service will be held at 10:00 AM Tuesday at the Murch Cemetery, South Casco, with the Rev. John Fillmore Patrick officiating. Arrangements by the Raymond-Wentworth Funeral Home, Bridgton.

Ken was a talented carpenter and very artistic. He made his living at building and remodeling houses and was much in demand in the Norway area and all over the State. His hobbies included carving and intricately painting birds, basket making and building canoes made entirely of strips of wood with no nails.

He was very close to his Grandson Cameron Brett and stayed closely in touch with him and his Paternal Grandparents who owned a Maple Sugar Farm in Otisfield, Maine even after his Daughter divorced the father of Cameron.

His Grandson was his pride and joy. Ken was in the hospital recovering from surgery for lung cancer when his Grandson graduated from Oxford Hills High School in 1993. He played the video tape of Cameron's graduation for all who came to visit.

In 1996, his beloved Grandson died in a fall from a roof at Bowdoin College. After Ken died at 3:20 A.M. on July of 1997 from recurrence of his lung cancer, half of his ashes were spread on his Grandson's grave and the other half were scattered on the Maple Tree farm in Otisfield where he and his Grandson had worked together.
